

Cookie statement

This Cookie Statement describes the cookies that MOTOR LEARNING INSTITUTE (hereinafter also: “we” and “us”) uses via the website www.motorlearninginstitute.com (hereinafter: the “Website”) and for what purpose these cookies are used.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small pieces of (text) information that are sent to your browser when you visit a website and are then stored on the hard drive or in the memory of your computer, tablet or mobile phone (hereinafter: “Device”). The cookies placed via the Website cannot damage your Device or the files stored on it.

Which cookies uses MOTOR LEARNING INSTITUTE?

Functional cookies

MOTOR LEARNING INSTITUTE primarily uses functional cookies. These cookies are necessary to provide you with the services and functionalities you have asked for. Functional cookies, for example, remember that you are logged in, so that you do not have to log in again on the next web page.

Analytics cookies

MOTOR LEARNING INSTITUTE uses analytics services to collect statistics about the use and visits of the Website. This data is analyzed by the provider of these analytics services and the results are provided to MOTOR LEARNING INSTITUTE. In this way, MOTOR LEARNING INSTITUTE gains insight into how the Website is used and can use this data to adjust the Website and/or its services if necessary. If required by law, the analytics service may provide this information to third parties. MOTOR LEARNING INSTITUTE uses the following analytics services: Google Analytics.

We have set up our analytics services as privacy-friendly as possible. This means that we have taken the following measures to protect your privacy:

- a. We have agreed with the provider of the analytics service that the data may not be used for other purposes.
- b. Your IP address is partially encrypted.

Social plug-ins

The Website provides access to various social media, such as Facebook and Instagram. With the help of these so-called social plugins you can share information on the website with others and recommend it. Cookies are placed on your Device by third parties via the social plugins. These can be cookies that aim to optimize your user experience, but tracking cookies can also be placed that are used to follow your surfing behavior across multiple websites and to build a profile of your surfing behavior.

Tracking cookies

MOTOR LEARNING INSTITUTE uses cookies from third parties on the Website that can make you personalized offers based on your surfing behaviour.

A cookie is placed on your Device with a unique number via the website. This cookie makes it possible to recognize your Device if you surf to another website after visiting our website, which is part of the same advertising network. This makes it possible for MOTOR LEARNING INSTITUTE to show you advertisements on that other website.

The data collected in this way is only used by MOTOR LEARNING INSTITUTE to show you our advertisements on other websites and is not linked to other files.

Deleting cookies

You can always revoke the permission you have given to MOTOR LEARNING INSTITUTE for placing and reading cookies by setting your browser so that it does not accept cookies or by deleting all cookies already placed in your browser. Consult the help function of your browser to see how you can delete the cookies.

You should keep in mind that deleting cookies may result in certain parts of the Website not working or not working properly.

Refusing and deleting cookies only has consequences for the computer and the browser on which you perform this action. If you use multiple computers and/or browsers, you must repeat the above action(s) for each computer and/or browser.

Privacy Statement

It is possible that the information collected by means of a cookie contains personal data. If that is the case, the MOTOR LEARNING INSTITUTE Privacy Statement also applies to the processing of this personal data. The Privacy Statement can be found on the Website.

Amendments

This Cookie Statement can be changed. Changes to this Cookie Statement will be announced via the Website.
